HOME HEALTH DEFINED

Home Health Care is defined as services provided by licensed and trained medical personnel ordered by a licensed physician. A Home Health Agency is licensed by the state & AHCA (Agency for Healthcare Administration) to provide skilled services to seniors who in most cases have been discharged from the hospital setting or skilled nursing facility, but require continued skilled care in the home setting.

Home health care services include Intermittent Skilled Nursing care, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy and Speech Therapy for seniors who remain homebound due to a lack of Physical Independence. A quality home health agency's main responsibility to a patient is re-establishment of physical & mental independence.
